References

Most of the research for To Secure Merit came from institutional documents and miscellaneous papers, correspondence, unpublished manuscripts, oral histories, biography files, photographs, memoirs, memorabilia and ephemera stored in the PCOM Archives. Copies of information relevant to the preparation of this history book were filed in a series of folders which have been accessioned into the Archives as "Centennial History Book." These folders include the following topics:

- Alumni Association and fund-raising
- Athletics
- Chronology, 1899-1974
- Clinical training and health care centers
- Curriculum
- Development of specialties
- Early history
- Last 25 years
- Military
- Miscellaneous
- Postgraduate education and residency programs
- Research
- Schools of Nursing and Allied Health
- Student life
- Women and minorities

Principal institutional records, reports and publications used in developing the Centennial History Book files (note: series typically are not complete):

Annual Report (President's Report), 1976-1998.

The Axone, 1927-1953.
